

TCS CODE OF CORPORATE DISCLOSURE PRACTICES

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“Regulations”) mandate every company, whose securities are listed on a stock exchange, to formulate and publish on its website a Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. In light of the above, the Company has formulated this Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices which inter-alia, seeks to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”) to the investor community by the Company to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the Securities of the Company.

A. Overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure of UPSI

The head of Investor Relations/Compliance Officer/head of Corporate Communication shall be responsible for:

- (i) overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure and dissemination of UPSI on a timely, adequate, uniform and universal manner to avoid selective disclosure, and
- (ii) educating employees on disclosure policies and procedures.

All disclosure and dissemination of UPSI (save and except disclosure required to be made under any law or under this TCS Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices) on behalf of the Company shall be first approved by the Compliance Officer before such UPSI is made public or published on behalf of the Company.

The Company shall typically not respond to speculative media articles or enquiries regarding any activities of the Company and shall provide appropriate and fair response to queries from regulatory authorities on news reports or verification of market rumors.

The Company shall disseminate all credible and concrete UPSI in a timely manner to Stock Exchanges where its Securities of the Company are listed in accordance with the requirements of applicable law and thereafter to the press.

The Company shall put up on its website, all such information as may be required in accordance with the requirements of applicable laws.

B. Sharing of UPSI for Legitimate Purpose

No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The TCS Policy for Determination of Legitimate Purpose in accordance with Regulation 3(2A) of the Regulations, as amended, is annexed and is part of this TCS Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices.

C. Dealing in case of breach of UPSI

In case of any dissemination of UPSI on behalf of the Company without prior approval referred above, out of accidental omission, selectively, inadvertently or otherwise by any Employee or Director of the Company, then such Employee or Director shall forthwith inform the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer will then take appropriate measures to rectify such disclosure or make it generally available, if necessary.

D. Disclosure and dissemination of UPSI with special reference to analysts/ investors meet

Whenever the Company proposes to organise analyst/investor meet, the Company shall make a press release or post relevant information on its website.

No person, except those authorized by either the head of Investor Relations/Compliance Officer/head of Corporate Communication shall disclose any information relating to the Securities of the Company to analysts/investors.

Directors and Employees of the Company shall provide information available in public domain while dealing with analysts/investors and may share any information relating to or comment on any trends in the industry/economy/geo-political situation.

All analyst/investor conferences/meetings shall be attended by the head of Investor Relations/Compliance Officer/head of Corporate Communication or their representatives, who may be accompanied by any other authorized employee(s) of the Company. In order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, they may make transcripts or arrangements for recording the discussions at the meeting.

The Company will intimate any amendment to the TCS Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices to the Stock Exchanges, as required under the Regulations.

4. Legitimate Purpose

An Insider shall not share UPSI with any person including other Insider(s) except where such communication is in the ordinary course of business or on a need-to-know basis and in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. An Insider before so sharing the UPSI with any other person shall notify him/her that the information is UPSI and to maintain confidentiality of the same. Further, the Insider shall get a Confidentiality Agreement executed by the recipient of UPSI and forward the same to the Compliance Officer. Designated Persons, who are employees and Directors and bound by the terms of the Code of Conduct in their capacity as employees or Directors, respectively, need not separately execute a Confidentiality Agreement.

Legitimate Purpose shall, inter-alia, include sharing of UPSI on need-to-know basis by an insider with promoters, partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, etc. provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions under these Regulations.

In following cases which are illustrative in nature, sharing of UPSI would be considered as legitimate purpose:

- i. For investigation, inquiry or request for information by statutory or governmental authorities or any other administrative body recognized by law;

Example: Any call for information or query received from Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Income Tax Authority, Securities and Exchange Board of India, Stock Exchanges, Reserve Bank of India, Sectoral Regulatory Body, etc.

ii. Under any proceedings or pursuant to any order of courts or tribunals;

Example: National Company Law Tribunal, National Company Law Appellate Tribunal, Quasi-judicial authorities, Other Appellate Tribunals, Arbitration Proceedings, etc.

iii. As part of compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules and requirements;

Example: Company Law, Securities Law, Income Tax Law, Banking Law, etc.

iv. Arising out of any contractual obligations or arrangements entered by the Company set forth in any contract, agreement, arrangement, settlement, understanding or undertaking.

Example: Due-diligence for any kind of restructuring, namely mergers and acquisitions, joint venture agreements, share purchase agreements, franchisee agreement, etc.

v. Arising out of business requirement including requirement for the purposes of promoting business of the Company, strategies of business, statutory consolidation requirements or related customary disclosure obligations which may require sharing of UPSI with any outsider or Promoter of the Company, who in turn may share it with their Promoter(s) as well as with their advisors, consultants, intermediaries, fiduciaries, etc.

Example: Some of the examples which are illustrative in nature are as mentioned below –

- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter for advice, consultation, transaction support, valuation, fund raising or other intermediation and approvals in relation to the subject matter of:
